Call for Papers

The Pacific Coast Branch American Historical Association Meeting August 9–11, 2012, San Diego, California

New Beginning or Beginning of the End?

The Program Committee for the 2012 Pacific Coast Branch-American Historical Association (PCB-AHA) annual meeting invites proposals for panels and papers on all historical subjects and time periods but with special consideration for those that fit the theme, “New Beginning or Beginning of the End?” This theme should provoke thought as events globally such as those in the Middle East cause historians and others to evaluate the state of the field, where it has been, and where it is going. We particularly want to emphasize global concepts of migration, ideology, colonialism, race and gender, international relations, and class constructions, all of which cross national lines. We hope that this conference will provide a forum for a discussion of new research, understanding, methodology, and teaching and learning approaches in these areas as well as many others.

We welcome submissions for panels, roundtable discussions, workshops, and individual papers. We also particularly welcome panels composed of or including graduate students. All submissions should be sent by email, with attachments in Word or RTF; please write “Proposed PCB Session (or Paper)” in the subject line.

When submitting a panel proposal:

- include an abstract that outlines the panel’s theme
- designate one panelist as contact person
- include all contact information for each panelists and a short biography of each person
- indicate audio/visual needs.

Each paper proposal, whether individual or part of a panel, should include for each participant:

- one-page abstract
- audio/visual needs
- one-page c.v.
- address, phone number, and email

The Program Committee assumes all members of proposed panels have agreed to participate. The deadline for submissions is Friday, January 6, 2012.
